The Northwestern Pacific Railroad Historical Society presents a major new history of the NWP

The Northwestern Pacific Railroad
Lifeline of the Redwood Empire
Boom and Bust 1951-2001

From the beginning “boom years” of Northern California’s lumber traffic to the demise of the Redwood Empire’s “Lifeline”, this is the 50-year story of the Northwestern Pacific Railroad from 1951 to 2001. The 416-page book documents the challenges and rewards of the Southern Pacific Railroad’s unique subsidiary including excerpts from former NWPRR employees “who were there.” Highlights include:

• 307 photographs with 300 previously unpublished
• 103 color photographs and 83 full page images
• 167 oral history excerpts from NWP employees
• 54 tables & charts documenting carloadings, motive power, and projects

The NWPRRHS is proud to announce this new book and happy to offer a discount to members. The retail price of this book is $89.95 + $7.42 tx. However, NWPRRHS members may purchase it for $75 + $6.19 tx Add $5 for mailing.
